LITIGATION

The administration of Judicial System in India is three tiers as far as enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights are concerned. Not below the District Courts have the jurisdiction to entertain any litigation action in respect of enforcement of Intellectual Property Right. Starting from the District Courts the litigation practice entails up to the apex court e.g. Supreme Court of India.

The newly constituted Intellectual Property Appellate Board is seized with the matter of rectification and/or cancellation of already registered/granted Patent and Trade Mark. Accordingly, the practice of enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights encompasses more often than not before the District Court, various High Courts and Supreme Court as well as before Intellectual Property Appellate Board.

Our firm has also one of the best and most active Litigation team which consists of Lawyers having vast and diverse experience.

- * Initiating and Defending of Passing off and Infringement suits relating to Patent and Industrial design matters.
- * Initiating and Defending of Passing off and Infringement suits relating to copyright and Industrial design matters.
